POSTDOC LUNCH

GEOMAR PACT Postdoc Academic Career Support

Tuesday, 8th September 2020 | 1-2 pm | online

Dr. Susanne Gatti:
How do I find out what I am good at?

In a constantly changing world of work it is of utmost importance to know your abilities and to have clarity about your goals. One important question for many postdocs is: “Should I stay or should I go?” In this career lunch talk, we will shed some light on relevant competencies to make a transition into another career paths or to stay in science. You will get insights into finding your personal set of skills, competencies and talents and to develop a strong language for it. Thus you have a sound basis for your personal success.

Dr. Susanne Gatti is head of the Staff Unit Science & Education at the Alfred-Wegener-Institute, Helmholtz-Zentrum für Polar- und Meeresforschung in Bremerhaven. Since 2018 she leads the AWI Postdoc-office PROCEED. In the career counseling, she pursues a holistic approach that takes into account professional skills and personal life situation in addition to professional development.

The Postdoc Lunch is an informal meeting of postdoc scientists in temporary employment at GEOMAR. The Postdoc Lunch takes place every two weeks on Tuesdays from 1:00 to 2:00 pm. At present only virtual. Information about the room will be communicated timely via the PACT-mailing list. At each meeting, there will be a 20-minute information talk on "What every postdoc should know" followed by time for questions and general exchange. Our new postdocs will be introduced and welcomed.
